HANDICAP TO SWANNANOA

E. C. COWDIN'S ERRATIC MARE WINS CHIEF RACE AT DOUGLAS PARK.

Threatening Weather Affects Patronage Only Slightly -Marjorie A., on Which Betting Coup Is Attempted, Has a Hemorrhage.

Louisville, Ky., June 3.—E. C. Cowdin's inconsistent mare, Swannonoa turned a form somersuit at Douglas Park this afternoon when she won the mile and seventy yards handicap that served as a feature. Because of her poor showing in her last start she was entirely eliminated from consideration as a factor, but she fooded the talent by going into active contention from the start and disposing of her opposition in thorough fashion before three-quarters of the trip had been covered. She was an easy winner over Flora Fina, with Morristown in third place, a short margin before High Private, with Helen Barbee and Coy Lad beaten off. Helen Barbee was the favorite of the race and ran prominently for three-quarters, then retired. In the earlier racing Coy Lad kept Swannanoa close company, but he had enough of it long before he reached the stretch turn.

Lowering clouds were instrumental in reducing the attendance somewhat, but chough spectators were on hand to fill the big grandstand and part of the space in front. The betting continued briss, but was of lesser volume than formerly, three of the space in front. The betting continued briss, but was of lesser volume than formerly, three of the stretch turn.

The connections of the A. Sette table lost extensively through the failure of Marjorie A. in the fifth race. She was regarded by them as an excellent medium for an attempted betting coup. but whatever chance she might have had was ruined when soon after the start she was stricken with a hemorrhage that necessitated her being taken out of contention. Adair & Baker's Samuel R. Mayer won this purse in a sharp drive with Sonada.

The talent went astray again in the third race, in which they gave Birdle Williams preference over Barbara Lane. It looked promising for Birdle Williams backers during the first half, but on the stretch turn Barbara Lane came with a rush and disposed of the favorite handily.

Some of the worst actors in these parts were among the starters in the second race, and they gave the starter and his assista

Trainer Frank M. Taylor has changed his plans and will ship his extensive string from here to helmont Park and later to Saratoga.

Adair & Baker's horses will be shipped to Fort Erie after the close of Latonia racing.

Kay Spence, represented in the closing dash by Bobby Cook, put in a claim for Prospect, but as Volita had finished third, E. R. Bradley had priority and secured the horse.

volita had missed third, E. R. Brathey had priority and secured the horse.

The two-horse combination, consisting of Detour and Barbara Lane, paid its backers $21.60. The three-horse combination went to the field backers, who received $6.90 for $2.

There is a rumor current of a sensational work trial by Gay Bird Sunday morning. He is said to have worked a mile, pulled to a walk, in 1:40, with the fractionals reported as follows: Quarter in :22½, half in :46%, three-quarters in 1:11%, seven furlongs in 1:24%.

There will be a special train from here Saturday night for the accommodation of the advance guard of race followers and turfmen who will take part in the Latonia meeting. Most of the pari-mutuel paraphernalia that has been used at Douglas Park will be shipped on this train. The train will be in charge of Eugene Elrod.

MUTUELS A SUCCESS AT ELECTRIC PARK.

The Baltimore News makes this comment on the meeting just ended at Electric Park:

The meeting just closed was conceded on all hands to be one of the best ever given on a half-mile track. The quality of the horses engaged was unusually good for a small track and the racing was clean and spirited.

"The neeting was notable from the fact that it marked the introduction of the mutuel system of the betting on the half-mile tracks, and in a measure settled the question of the success of the 'iron men' at the smaller courses.

"In general it may be said that the result at Electric Park demonstrates that the machines can be operated with a fair margin of profit on the half-mile tracks. While no such large returns may be expected as under the old system, especially when operated by a syndicate book, a reasonable business profit can hardly fail to be realized. Electric Park started cut with handling about $25,000 a day in the machines and wound up by taking in $40,000, or nearly so, for each of the last two days.

"When the public becomes educated to this method of hetting the play will largely increase. All the gowners of the tracks will have to do is to provide good programs and the public will do the rest.

"The winning tickets showed big results. The oreaks were such that under the old system the bookmaker would have gathered in all the money and had the public bankrupt. With the 'fron men,' lowever, the roll keeps passing around and what is one's loss is another's gain.

"The horsemen now scatter for all points. A large-lelegation will ship to Canada and take in the half-nile circuit. A few will go to Belmont Park with the hope of getting into a cheap race and winning comething. Mike Kelly will ship his string to Belmont Park. Mr. Kelly has added a couple of jumpers, Essex and a green one, to his stable, and will make a dash into the cross-country game."

RACE OF RACES TO BE RUN TODAY.

The Epsom Derby, incomparably the chief race of the world for three-year-olds, will be run at Epsom today, in the presence of an assemblage of people too vast to be more than vaguely estimated. Unless A. Belmont's Vulcain arrives from France, or some other owner changes his mind at the last moment, no American-bred candidate will start. Until a short time back Vulcain was deemed a sure starter and had been considerably backed. But he was beaten by Ecouen and Blarney in the Prix Daru at Paris, May 22, and this probably accounts for his being an absentee. Had Flint Rock trained on in good health he would probably have been one of the favorites, but unluckily he became afflicted with rheumatism. Mr. Whitney's Harmonicon has not done well so far this year, and so, far one greaten that there will be no American starter. As has been the custom in recent years, the crack American jockeys riding in England and France will figure extensively in the race. The favorite, and the filly Prue for his contract employer, but the filly Prue for his contract employer, but he called quotations being 2½-1 against Chaganour, which was second choice in the betting yesterday, the called quotations being 2½-1 against Chaganour, which was second choice in the betting yesterday, the called quotations being 2½-1 against Chaganour, and the stands have been under police supervision for some days to prevent outrages by the millitant suffragettes.

HORRON IN GRAND FORM

AMOS TURNEY'S CRACK THREE-YEAR-OLD WINS WINDSOR HOTEL CUP.

Big Crowd Turns Out in Spite of Unfavorable Weather Conditions for Opening at Blue Bonnets-A Day of Close Finishes.

Montreal, Que., June 3.—In spite of unfavorable weather conditions a large crowd was in attendance at the opening of the Montreal Jockey Club's meeting at Blue Bonnets this afternoon. The program which was made up of seven races was evenly balanced and a majority of the races furnished interesting contests, the finishes in three of them being close enough to leave the winner in doubt until the final strides.

The running of the Windsor Hotel Cup attracted most interest. Only three of the six carded went to the post, among them Buskin and Horron. Racegoers were eager to see a renewal of the contest between this pair, but after today's race every one conceded that Buskin has no chance of beating Horron. The latter won with ease after making all of his own pace. Small made several desperate attempts to get to the leader, but to no avail, and at the finish Turner had the McGee colt well in hand.

The tabled history of the Windsor Hotel Cup is shown below:

The field in the sixth race numbered sixteen, which was the largest that ever started in a race over the Blue Bonnets track. The winner turned up in Spellbound, which came from behind and just did manage to get up in time to beat Righteasy a nose. It was a close thing between the two and not until the official placing was displayed did those in the grandstand know which of the pair had won.

Another close finish came with the running of the seventh race, in which three of the ten starters fought it out through the homestretch and at the end were noses apar. Grif, which acted fractiously at the post, made most of the pace and weakened only in the final strides, where Pardner and Towton Field both passed him.

MINERAL SPRINGS MEETING ANNOUNCED.

The management of the Mineral Springs Jockey Club announced yesterday that three race meetings, each of fifteen days' duration, will be conducted this summer and fall at the Porter, Ind., track, where an unsuccessful attempt was made to establish racing last fall. The first meeting, acording to announcement, will open June 28 and continue for fifteen consecutive days, closing on July 15. Other meetings are planned for August and September.

It is probable that the tentative plans for installing the pari-mutuel system of betting will be abandoned and that an oral system that will not infringe on the Indiana law will be employed for what speculation may be indulged in. The management has nothing definite to announce regarding this phase of the matter, however. It is understood that the plans for the racing have been submitted to those in authority.

one of the greatest contests in the long history of this rich stake.

On Friday last Foundation made a new track record of 1:44 at Douglas Park over the mile and one-sixteenth route, and on Saturday Ten Point made the same distance in 1:44%, forced out by the great filly Gowell. This trio is engaged in the Latonia Derby, as is also G. M. Hendrie's colt, Great Britain, which son of The Commoner scored impressively in his first start of the year at Douglas Park Saturday. It is seldom that in two days' racing four Derby candidates race so impressively as did Ten Point, Foundation, Gowell and Great Britain.

What more could be asked of a horse?. "Plate Glass ran a gallant race, perhaps the best and most honest race he has shown since coming into Mr. Davies' ownership. He gave no indication of the unwillingness to persevere that he sometimes displayed last year, but responded in the gamest style to the whip that he is unaccustomed to. He could not give the weight, that was all. The three-year-old First Sight, with only a feather to carry, was a disappointment, dropping out of the contention early. Buskin came on resolutely, got up into second place and was going strong at the end, sugesting that at the berby distance this summer he will have to be reckoned with. Saturday's race was a mile and an eighth. Cliff Edge and John Furlong were unable to follow a pace that was not only fast, but well sustained, the first mile better than 1:40 and the full distance just behind the track record. "The outstanding flaws that the critics found in Mr. Vosburgh's handicap concerned particularly John Furlong and Horron. The three-year-old looked to have an almost impossible task before him, while John Furlong was so well in that it was practically a gift for him. The result confounded the critic's views. Horron won all the way, and John Furlong was not there when the money was allotted. All of which once more illustrates the unwisdom of trying to teach your grandfather to sack eggs, was the honely way one veteran put it after the race. The handicapper is vastly more likely to be right than interprine out of a hundred of fault seekers. That is why he is the handicapper. It was a great race and before it was run one could find sound reason for expecting any horse in the starting list to win." Spokane, Wash., June 3.—The racing at Alan today was uniformly good. There were several mishaps in the third race. While at the post jockey. Willis, who had the mount on Nino Muchacho, was kicked on the leg and suffered a serious bruise. The horse was returned to the paddock, causing a delay of over ten minutes. J. King was gubstituted and, after the field had left the post and gone about a furlong, there was some crowding in which Frieze was knocked down. Jockey Tedwell was thrown, but escaped uninjured.
